ORCHARD GLOBAL AGENCY (OLA) was founded in 2021 by the owners of Pagony, that began life as a children's bookshop back in 2001 and was the first of its kind in Budapest, Hungary. The Pagony name – not only as the leading children's bookshop but as one of the most prominent children's publishers in the country – has become a key element of any conversation about contemporary children's literature in Hungary. Pagony publications won numerous times the Hungarian Ibbý Award, also competing for the International prize.

OLA represents both established award-winning and best-selling authors and illustrators as well as some of the most exciting and diverse new writing and illustrator talents from Hungary, Austria and Israel. We offer the complete range for the young reader from picture books to young adult titles, all age groups, unique and fun, loveable titles fulfilling the expectations of our sometimes complicated age. Our titles are performing well on the market, honoured with prizes, open minded and fresh... with that little touch of magic as our secret ingredient.

Garden!

Author & Illustrator: Zsuzsanna Iván

story book | Age 3+

44 pages | 210×297 mm | Hard cover

2024

Every year at the Budapest Illustration Festival, Pagony Publishers awards the best emerging illustrator, giving space and opportunity to a new talent. From this project this magical title of Zsuzsanna Iván about a little girl's dream of a garden was born.

"We are going to move. Hopefully to a house with a garden. A very small garden would be nice, just big enough to fit a small cherry tree."

Oy!

Author & Illustrator: Zsuzsanna Iván

story book | Age 3+

44 pages | 210×297 mm | Hard cover

2025

A heartfelt book about fear. Or about courage? Because not to be afraid is to find the strength in yourself. Or could you have a friend standing by your side and suddenly everything gets easier? Can you just dream of such a friend?

An artistic, stunning, empathetic picture book by the young talent, Zsuzsanna Iván.

Kitty Dresses Up

Author: Hanna Györi

Illustrator: Bori Györi

story book | Age 1+

22 pages | 138×148 mm | boardbook

2024

Kitty woke up early today, and it is time to get dressed!

In this interactive boardbook for little ones they can help Kitty in this not always easy task. A lot of fun to make this routine a well deserved adventure with illustrations that both parents and the most important people simply must love.

No need to explain that getting dressed is fun - of course it is!

Scragglybeard and Frizzymop

Author: Veronika Marék

Illustrator: András Baranyai b

story book | Age 3+

32 pages | 200×220 mm | Hard cover

Translation available on request

2024

"This story started when Professor Scragglybeard went for a walk" - and continued when he met Frizzymop, a VERY GOOD dog who had nowhere to live.

But how has Frizzymop ended up on the street? Where did his owner go? Does the professor happen to need a VERY GOOD dog? What will happen to you, Frizzymop?

From the still active, bestselling, classic children's author of Hungary, Veronika Marék. A heartwarming story of friendship and the way to each other - with lovely illustrations by András Baranyai.

Lily and Dandelion series

Author & Illustrator: Panka Pásztohy

story book | Age 2+

24/40 pages | 162x200 mm | Hard cover

The first title is available in English

Winner of the Golden Book Medal 2017

This heart-warming lyrical tale from Panka Pásztohy is about friendship and dog adoption. Lily takes the same route to school every morning: past the big chestnut tree, the little puddle and the house with the green fence. On the other side of the fence lives a small dog. They meet up every day, and the little spotty dog eats whatever is left of Lily's sandwiches. Soon they become friends, and Lily names the dog 'Dandelion'. But one day Dandelion has disappeared! Lily is inconsolable. She discovers that her friend has been taken to the dog shelter. Can she help Dandelion? In the other episodes in the series, they have a number of adventures, such as going to a science class, finding their neighbour's cat and tracking down a hedgehog in the garden.

Everyone's walking around

Author & Illustrator: András Dániel

story book | Age 4+

24 pages | 200x220 mm | Soft cover

Sample translation available on request

I don't know about you, but my head can be a bit of a come and go at times! There are strange characters pushing and shoving each other around inside, like passers-by on a busy city street on a weekday afternoon. Occasionally, one of them will wander off while I'm scribbling on a piece of paper - say, when I'm on the phone, thinking, staring, or something that should be boring me a bit. Except, as you know, the scribbles usually end up in the wastepaper basket, or better still, in the bottom of a drawer. I felt like that needed to change! Hence this book, where I let the figures in my head and on the paper scribbles swarm - free to do as they please! And you can look at them and even make up their stories. Because they all have a story, I'm sure!

The Tales of the Trees

Author: Dóra Gimesi
Illustrator: Kinga Rofusz

story book | Age 6+

2024

Every day, Alice and her Great Grandmama walk past the one hundred and twenty-three year old poplar tree in the City Park. When the old tree is cut down by the work machines, they touch the rings of tree and travel back in time to when Mum, Grandma, Grandmama were children... When the Underground Railway was brand new, the people of the City danced among the ruins, the children wore red and blue ties, and everything was different, but a little bit just the same.

With sensitive and magical paintings by Kinga Rofusz, Dóra Gimesi's unique tales of the 20th century not only come to life, but also reach deep into our hearts. 150 years are of history told in sometimes funny, sometimes sad, but always engaging and true adventures.

A Ghost Lives in This House, I Think

Author: Kata Tasi
Illustrator: Juli Litkei

picture book | Age 5+

40 pages | 200×220 mm | Hard cover

2024

The happy summer of the little boy and the ghost brought to life in an artistic picture book.

Can a ghost be afraid in the dark? Or can be sad when alone on the pantry shelf? Or bored if there are no people in the house to scare? It might not feel like scaring anyone, might it not?

This slightly fearful house ghost, always losing half a pair of socks, would surely prefer eating apricot jam, swinging on the swings, playing badminton, or having fun with his friend, the little boy.

This book is about the most important and most indispensable element of creation, the creative impulse, and how to preserve this impulse, letting go of all the blocking and inhibiting phrases that hinder free experimentation in the children's drawing and painting.

In the book you will find so-called "free-flowing pages" for free play and experiment with single paint splatters or as a big coherent picture, and pairs of pages where the reader can create their own little creatures in a jungle, a sea or even in urban traffic.

And the reward for those brave enough to draw the pages will be a special and unique volume, the only one of its kind in the world.

It all began with daily Facebook posts during the first covid lockdown, but those posts went viral, and the drawings became a hugely popular phenomenon. The titles of the Let's Draw a Potato series soon became bestsellers, sold in many thousands of copies. Their secret lies in ditching the anxiety and tension around "not being artistic" by showing that every line and shape is just perfect as it is. All four books are based on the same simple principle: everyone can draw - all you need is a potato!

Taste the World! - From steam dumplings to saffron pancakes

Author: Györgyi Kalas
Illustrator: Ildi Horváth

non-fiction | Age 5+

72 pages | 190×220 mm | Hard cover

Do you like colourful-scented spices, special dishes, bowls full of small bites? Do you wonder what they eat in the icy north, in the high mountains of South America, at a Moroccan bazaar, at the Balinese paradise or in the remote villages of Transylvania?

In this part of Györgyi Kalas's children's series on gastronomy, you can travel the globe from Morocco to Hong Kong and Romania to find out where things grow, how they are prepared and what the typical dishes of different peoples are. And at the end of the book, you'll find three simple recipes to try out at home!

Harmony, the Realm of Music

Author: Ferenc Tarr
Illustrator: András B. Baranyai

narrative non-fiction | Age 7+

128 pages | 183×235 mm | Hard cover
Sample translation available in English

Princess Melody leaves home in search of her own tune, discovering every inch of Harmony – the realm of music – on the way. This book fills a gaping hole in children's literature. Unlike other educational tales, Melody's journey is an introduction to music in general through four equally important elements: folk, impro, pop and classical music. These are all explained without complicated terms and definitions through this joyful and entertaining story.
